

Integrating Undergraduate Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activity into the Curriculum

Register at [tiny.utk.edu/
URSCAworkshop](https://tiny.utk.edu/URSCAworkshop)

CHOOSE FROM TWO SESSIONS:
March 29, 1:30–3:30 p.m., or
March 30, 9:40–11:40 a.m.

Undergraduate Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activity (URSCA) is a high-impact practice that benefits students across demographic groups and academic disciplines.

- Engage in scholarly work while challenging your students
- Discover models and examples of intentional curricular integration
- Impact student learning and development
- Provide students with more equitable access to the benefits of URSCA
- Learn about applying for an R-designation for your new or existing course

The workshop includes a discussion to explore and share opportunities and challenges with participants from throughout the university.

Additional details at tiny.utk.edu/Rworkshop

PRESENTER:
Jeffrey Osborn,
Dean, School of Science,
College of New Jersey

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
KNOXVILLE

SPONSORED BY THE
Teaching and Learning Center,
Office of Undergraduate Research,
and Experience Learning